

Some Enchanted Evening

Oscar Hammerstein II, Richard Rodgers

Men: Some enchanted evening, you may see a stranger,
 You may see a stranger across a crowded room,
 And somehow you know, you know even then,
 That somehow you'll see her again and again.

All: Some enchanted evening, someone may be laughing,
 You may hear her laughing across a crowded room,
 And night after night, as strange as it seems,
 The sound of her laughter will sing in your dreams.

Women: Who can explain it,
 Who can tell you why?

Men: Fools give you reasons,

All: Wise men never try.

All: Some enchanted evening, when you find your true love,
 When you hear her call you across a crowded room,
 Then fly to her side and make her your own,
 Or all through your life you may dream all alone.

Men: Once you have found her, never let her go,

Women: Once you have found her, never let her go.

All: Once you have found her, ne—ver — let — — her — — go.
