On the Street Where You Live

from My Fair Lady

Men: I have often walked down this street before,
But the pavement always stayed beneath my feet before.
All at once am I several stories high
Knowing I'm on the street where you live.

Women: Are there lilac trees in the heart of town?
Can you hear a lark in any other part of town?
Does enchantment pour out of every door?
No, it's just on the street where you live!

Men: And oh, the towering feeling
Just to know somehow you are near;
The overpowering feeling
That any second you may suddenly appear.

All: People stop and stare, they don't bother me,
For there's nowhere else on earth that I would rather be;
Let the time go by, I won't care if I
Can be here on the street where you live!

Women: And oh, the towering feeling
Just to know somehow you are near;
The overpowering feeling
That any second you may suddenly appear.

All: People stop and stare, they don't bother me,
For there's nowhere else on earth that I would rather be;
Let the time go by, I won't care if I
Can be here on the street where you live!

All: Yes, I'm here on the street where you live!
